

Building India's Most Trusted Investing Brand

An Integrated Marketing Strategy for Sustainable Business Growth

Prepared by Jagdish Talreja

Why Brand-led Growth?

In today's WealthTech landscape, products can be copied. Trust cannot.

Brand

Create awareness, recognition and emotional connection

Trust

Build credibility through consistent customer experiences and communication

Customer Preference

Increase consideration, acquisition, engagement and loyalty

Business Growth

Drive sustainable customer acquisition, higher lifetime value and stronger market leadership

Executive Summary

The next phase of WealthTech growth will be won by brands that create trust—not just transactions

Current Reality

Feature Parity Brokerage platforms now offer increasingly similar features and pricing	Rising Acquisition Costs Performance marketing alone is becoming less sustainable
Changing Customer Expectations Investors seek confidence, education and personalised guidance	Trust Drives Choice Customers choose financial brands they believe will help them succeed over the long term

Strategic Recommendation

Differentiate Emotionally Move beyond product features to build lasting customer preference	Become the Brand Investors Trust Position Upstox as the investing partner that simplifies wealth creation
Deepen Customer Relationships Strengthen engagement across every stage of the customer journey	Drive Sustainable Growth Balance brand building, product marketing and performance marketing

Expected Outcome

Stronger Brand Preference	Higher Customer Trust	Increased Retention	Sustainable Growth
